MARINE CORPS REMEMBRANCES (i.e. lifetime highlights, what the Marine Corps means to you). We plan to use in preparing a log to share with attendees. For the remembrances section, the following is a suggested approach and may serve as a memory jogger. There is no space limit here, please feel free to express yourself, using additional pages as needed.

1 – Who were you and what were you expecting when you reported to Quantico on October 10, 1966? What was your reaction to OCS and Basic School? Back then there were two types of Marine Officers: those going over and those coming back.

2 -- Vietnam. How did the experience set with you, first report in to the day you departed for CONUS? Did you see what was coming? Your first action or reaction.

3 -- Afterthoughts. As you got on with your life, how did the Marine Corps/Vietnam experience affect you? Many Vietnam Vets feel that it was the most dramatic, proudest thing that they have done in their lives. Others have different reflections. Today, how do you feel about the USMC?

4 – Any other thoughts you would like to share.
